SUN-JOURNAL-PRESS

This is a subzine of THE MIXUMAXU GAZETTE which will probably appear again when I find myself having miscalculated the number of pages I would need for games in THG. Can anyone figure out the derivation of the title?

TADEK JARSKI MEMORIAL DEPARTMENT

The Poles and Italians, being tired of all the ethnic jokes told of them, got together and came to an agreement: they would play a game of soccer, and the loser of the match would have to bear the brunt of the jokes in the future.

It was the fourth quarter, and the score was tied at 93-93, mostly because the two teams kept kicking the ball in the wrong goals, but we won't mention that. Suddenly a train passing by the field tooted its whistle. The Poles, thinking the game was over, left the field. Five minutes later the Italians won.
